The Whole Brain Child Book Review and Discussion Alpha Mom

The Whole-Brain Child is one of those books that I really wish were around when I first began my parenting journey. I think that I made a lot of situations more difficult because I didn't really understand what was going on in my children's undeveloped brains. Especially for one of my children, who was an epic-tantrum thrower, and ignoring him didn't work. Now I know why. Fortunately at 17-years old, the days of him throwing himself on the ground, kicking and screaming are over.
