Out of the Wild A Novel Amazon de Mark Rashid

What a fine novel about a fine man who goes through a truly dreadful time! Well thought out, well written story of parallel lives: one is a man who had so much and then he had nothing; the other is a young wild mustang who led a carefree life, until he made a big mistake. and then he also had nothing except life hanging on a thread.

Rules of the Wild A Novel of Africa by Francesca Marciano

Rules of the Wild is essentially a love story. It's one girl's struggle to find herself in the wild of Africa, and instead she finds love in a most complicated sense of the word. I found that I could identify with Esme in so many aspects of her life.

Wild From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail by Wild is easily one of the best memoirs I've ever read. For two main reasons. 1) It is extremely well-written. This book doesn't have that feeling which non-fiction books often give me - a feeling that I'm stuck in the dreary real world and that I should have read some exciting fiction instead. It reads like a novel.
