'Closing the Ring' continues Churchill's personal account of World War II. The book covers the events from July 1943 until the advent of D-Day in June 1944. The first book describes the invasion of Sicily and Southern Italy, the fall of Mussolini, the risk of an Italian civil war, and how the Italian invasion came to a standstill.

Closing the Ring The Second World War Volume 5 Winston
Winston Churchill's "Closing the Ring: The Second World War, Volume 5 (Winston Churchill World War II Collection)" is the 5th volume in his "Second World War" historical series. As with the other volumes, it's inconceivably great, awe inspiring, and brings World War II to life. It forms just one segment of the timeline he's documenting and really can't be read stand-alone. So, start with the first book. I'm rating it (and the series) at an Excellent 5 stars out of 5.
