Word Nerd is possibly the most heart-warming story I've read this year, and made me remember why I loved middle-grade books in the first place. Word Nerd is about a 12 year old boy named Ambrose, whose dad died before he was even born, and he never really fits in.

Word Nerd by Susin Nielsen Ambrose Bukowski is a twelve-year-old social misfit. He has food allergies; he wears "uncool" clothing (his sneakers are Ikes, a cheap imitation of Nikes); he has no friends. He and his overprotective widowed mother, Irene, live in a dreary basement rental in Vancouver, where they have moved so Irene can work teaching "sessionals" to mediocre college students. Three school bullies torture Ambrose on a daily basis.
