20 Historical Fiction Books About Life During World War II

Weaving fiction into historical reality, Mary Doria Russell s tale unfolds via the perspective of a Jewish family seeking safety in Italy during the final phase of the war. And, yes, things get bleak, but the through line of Russell s novel, which highlights the little-known story of Italian citizens who saved more than 40,000 Jews from capture, is that while humanity will always have darkness, so too will it have light.
