Greek Yogurt Panna Cotta Modern Honey

This Panna Cotta is unique because it is made with both Greek Yogurt and Heavy Cream. The greek yogurt adds a bit of tang while adding a rich creamy texture along with the added benefits of protein. I always use plain greek yogurt as there are no additives and is the perfect base for this yogurt panna cotta recipe.

Vanilla and yoghurt panna cotta with pomegranate jelly

I love the contrast of the white and the red (my favourite colour) in this recipe. But after you have tried this recipe once, if you fancy it, mix up the fruit the next time using mango or even blackberries for a different flavour. Link to the video clip to see how to set your panna cotta on a slant.

Yogurt Panna Cotta Recipe A Spicy Perspective

Pour the half and half into the yogurt mix and blend again until smooth. Pour the liquid yogurt panna cotta into 4 6 oz. ramekins or short wide mugs. Cover and refrigerate for at least two hours. Once the panna cotta sets, combine the blackberries, water, 3/4 tsp. gelatin, maple syrup, pinch of salt and orange zest in a small sauce pan.

Yogurt Panna Cotta with Fresh Plums recipe Epicurious com

I love Panna Cotta but had never made it before. It was superb! I thought I could improve on this recipe by using one of Thomas Kellers Panna Cotta recipes. By far this one is the best I have ever tasted. Perfect when you want something with the sense of being rich but is actually very light.
